

HR Activity – Debate / Elocution for Interview Preparation

Enhancing Communication, Confidence & Interview Skills

Objective of the Activity

- To build confidence in public speaking
- To improve verbal communication and articulation
- To develop critical thinking and structured reasoning
- To simulate interview-like communication situations
- To enhance body language, voice modulation, and stage presence

Activity Format

Elocution (Individual):

- Each participant presents a 2–3 minute speech
- Topic is either assigned or selected in advance

Debate (Team):

- Two teams: For vs Against
- Each team includes 2–3 members
- Each speaker is allotted time to present and rebut
- A moderator will guide the discussion

Sample Topics for Discussion

Note: Topics are provided for reference and guidance. Final topics may be selected or assigned.

Elocution Topics (Individual Speech):

- The Role of Technology in Modern Education
- Power of Positive Thinking in Personal Growth
- Leadership is an Action, Not a Position

Debate Topics (Team-Based):

- Should Social Media Usage Be Limited Among Students?
- Is AI Replacing Human Intelligence?
- Remote Work is the Future – Agree or Disagree?

Rules and Guidelines

- Each participant must adhere to time limits
- Use only English for speeches and debate
- Avoid reading directly from paper or phone
- Maintain decorum and respect opposing viewpoints
- Avoid personal attacks or inappropriate content
- Use relevant facts, examples, or statistics to support points

Do's and Don'ts

Do's

- Maintain eye contact with the audience
- Speak with clarity and confidence
- Greet before starting and thank after finishing
- Use appropriate body language and voice modulation
- Structure your speech or argument in a logical manner
- Prepare and practice in advance

Don'ts

- Do not read from mobile or paper continuously
- Avoid informal language or slang
- Do not interrupt the other speaker during debate
- Avoid rushing or speaking too fast
- Refrain from personal or emotional attacks
- Do not exceed your allotted time

Practical Classroom Activity

Activity Execution:

Each student will participate in either an Elocution or a Debate, conducted live in the classroom.

Instructions:

- Students may choose between Elocution or Debate based on interest
- Topics will be given by faculty
- Prepare for 5–10 minutes before speaking (if applicable)
- Follow the rules, time limits, and speaking etiquette
- Faculty and peers will act as audience and judges
- Feedback will be shared immediately after the activity